

(1) Directly or indirectly promise any employment position, compensation, contract, appointment, or other benefit, provided for or made possible in whole or in part by funds under the Act, or any special consideration in obtaining any such benefit, to any person as consideration, favor, or regard for any political activity or for the support of, or opposition to, any candidate or any political party in connection with any general or special election to any political office, or in connection with any primary election or political convention or caucus held to select candidates for any political office (18 U.S.C. 600); or

(2) Directly or indirectly knowingly cause or attempt to cause any person to make a contribution of a thing of value (including services) for the benefit of any candidate or any political party, by means of the denial or deprivation, or the threat of the denial or deprivation, of any employment or benefits funded under the Act (18 U.S.C. 601).

§ 632.125 Responsibilities of Native American grantees, subgrantees and contractors for preventing fraud and program abuse and for general program management.

(a) Each Native American grantee shall establish and use internal program management procedures sufficient to prevent fraud and program abuse, including subgrantee and contractor fraud and abuse. The procedures to be used shall be identified in the Native American grantee's Master Plan.

(b) Each Native American grantee, subgrantee and contractor shall ensure that sufficient, auditable, and otherwise adequate records are maintained which support the expenditure of all funds under the Act. Such records shall be sufficient to allow the Secretary to audit and monitor the Native American grantees', subgrantees', and contractors' programs and shall include the maintenance of a management information system in accordance with the requirements of § 632.32.

(c) Any person having knowledge of fraud, criminal activity or other abuse shall report such information directly and immediately to the Secretary.

Similarly, all complaints involving such matters should also be reported to the Secretary directly and immediately.

Subpart G—[Reserved]

Subpart H—Job Training Partnership Act Programs Under Title IV, Section 401

§ 632.170 Eligibility for funds.

The Department shall provide funds under section 401 of the Act only to Native American grantees designated in accordance with § 632.10.

§ 632.171 Allocation of funds.

(a) One hundred percent, except as provided in § 632.171(c), of the amount available for section 401 will be distributed by formula as follows:

(1) Twenty-five percent of the available funds shall be allocated on the basis of the relative number of unemployed Indians and other Native Americans within the Native American grantee's geographic service area compared to the total number of unemployed Indians and other Native Americans in the United States.

(2) Seventy-five percent of the available funds shall be allocated on the basis of the relative number of members of Indian and other Native Americans households, whose income is at or below the poverty level, within the Native American grantee's geographic service area compared to the total number of members of Indians and Native American households in poverty in the United States.

(b) Commencing with Program Year 1985 and after consultation with Indian groups, the Department may reserve up to one percent of section 401 funds. These funds may be used for technical assistance to improve the program's overall performance.

(c) In situations when the Department determines that the formula allocation will result in severe disruption from one year to the next, a hold harmless or other factor to minimize such disruptions may be used.
