

§ 101-47.307-3

deemed a beneficiary of this covenant without regard to whether it remains the owner of any land or interest therein in the locality of the property hereby conveyed and shall have the sole right to enforce this covenant in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) Any deed, lease, or other instrument executed to dispose of property under this subpart, subject to reservations, restrictions, or conditions as to the future use, maintenance, or transfer of the property shall recite all covenants, representations, and agreements pertaining thereto.

(d) Where the existence of hazardous substance activity has been brought to the attention of the disposal agency by the Standard Form 118 information provided in accordance with §101-47.202-2(b)(10), the disposal agency shall incorporate such information into any deed, lease, or other instrument executed pursuant to part 101-47. See the language contained in §101-47.304-14. In the case where the purchaser is a potentially responsible party (PRP) with respect to the hazardous substance activity, the language must be modified as appropriate to properly represent the liability of the PRP for any remedial action.
