

§ 101-47.401-2

That such temporary use and occupancy will not interfere with, delay, or retard its transfer to a Federal agency or disposal.

(c) That excess and surplus real property which is dangerous to the public health or safety shall be destroyed or rendered innocuous.

§ 101-47.401-2 Definitions.

As used in this subpart, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Maintenance. The upkeep of property only to the extent necessary to offset serious deterioration; also such operation of utilities, including water supply and sewerage systems, heating, plumbing, and air-conditioning equipment, as may be necessary for fire protection, the needs of interim tenants, and personnel employed at the site, and the requirements for preserving certain types of equipment.

(b) Repairs. Those additions or changes that are necessary for the protection and maintenance of property to deter or prevent excessive or rapid deterioration or obsolescence, and to restore property damaged by storm, flood, fire, accident, or earthquake.

§ 101-47.401-3 Taxes and other obligations.

Payments of taxes or payments in lieu of taxes (in the event of the enactment hereafter of legislation by Congress authorizing such payments upon Government-owned property which is not legally assessable), rents, and insurance premiums and other obligations pending transfer or disposal shall be the responsibility of the holding agency.

§ 101-47.401-4 Decontamination.

The holding agency shall be responsible for all expense to the Government and for the supervision of decontamination of excess and surplus real property that has been subjected to contamination with hazardous materials of any sort. Extreme care must be exercised in the decontamination, and in the management and disposal of contaminated property in order to prevent such properties becoming a hazard to the general public. The disposal agency shall be made cognizant of any and all inherent hazards involved relative to such property in order to protect the general public from hazards and to preclude the Government from any and all liability resulting from indiscriminate disposal or mishandling of contaminated property.

41 CFR Ch. 101 (7-1-02 Edition)

§ 101-47.401-5 Improvements or alterations.

Improvements or alterations which involve rehabilitation, reconditioning, conversion, completion, additions, and replacements in structures, utilities, installations, and land betterments, may be considered in those cases where disposal cannot otherwise be made, but no commitment therefor shall be entered into without prior approval of GSA.

§ 101-47.401-6 Interim use and occupancy.

When a revocable agreement to place excess real property or surplus real property in productive use has been made, the agency executing the agreement shall be responsible for the servicing thereof.

§ 101-47.402 Protection and maintenance.

§ 101-47.402-1 Responsibility.

The holding agency shall retain custody and accountability for excess and surplus real property including related personal property and shall perform the protection and maintenance of such property pending its transfer to another Federal agency or its disposal. Guidelines for protection and maintenance of excess and surplus real property are in § 101-47.4913. The holding agency shall be responsible for complying with the requirements of the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan and initiating or cooperating with others in the actions prescribed for the prevention, containment, or remedy of hazardous conditions.
