

General Accounting Office

§ 29.6

Architect of the Capitol, the Botanic Garden, or the Senate restaurants, and whose claim of violation arises out of such employment. The term “employee of the Architect of the Capitol” does not include any individual who is a House of Representatives garage or parking lot attendant, including the superintendent.

General Counsel means the General Counsel of the Board, as provided for under 31 U.S.C. 752.

Petition for Review means any request filed with the Board for action to be taken on matters within the Board’s jurisdiction pursuant to the Architect of the Capitol Human Resources Act, Public Law 103–283, sec. 312, 108 Stat. 1443 (July 22, 1994).

Petitioner means any individual filing a petition for review with the Board.

Solicitor means the attorney appointed by the Board to provide advice and assistance to the Board in carrying out its adjudicatory functions and to advise parties and members of the public on the Board’s procedures.

§ 29.3 Jurisdiction of the Board.

(a) The Board has jurisdiction to hear and adjudicate claims brought by employees of the Architect of the Capitol alleging discrimination in employment based on:

(1) Race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, within the meaning of section 717 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 2000e–16;

(2) Age, within the meaning of section 15 of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended, 29 U.S.C. 633a; or

(3) Handicap or disability, within the meaning of section 501 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 29 U.S.C. 791, and sections 102 through 104 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. 12112–12114.

(b) The Board has jurisdiction to hear and adjudicate claims brought by any individual alleging that he or she was subjected, by any employee of the Architect of the Capitol, to intimidation or reprisal because of the exercise of any right under the Architect of the Capitol Human Resources Act. This includes claims of retaliation against an individual because he or she:

(1) Opposed practices made unlawful by the Architect of the Capitol Human Resources Act;

(2) Filed a charge or petition for review with the Board;

(3) Utilized the internal procedures provided by the Architect of the Capitol for the resolution of claims of discrimination or reprisal including, but not limited to, the filing of a request for formal or informal advice or the filing of a formal complaint; or

(4) Participated in any proceedings before the Board or the Architect of the Capitol for the resolution of complaints of discrimination or reprisal.

[59 FR 59106, Nov. 16, 1994, as amended at 60 FR 35119, July 6, 1995]

§ 29.4 Computation of time.

For the purposes of this part, time will be computed in the manner described in 4 CFR 28.4.

§ 29.5 Informal procedural advice.

Any party or member of the public may seek advice on all aspects of the Board’s procedures by contacting the Board’s Solicitor, the Board’s General Counsel or the Clerk of the Board. Informal advice will be supplied within the limits of available time and staff.

§ 29.6 Requirement for exhaustion of internal administrative remedies provided by the Architect of the Capitol.

(a) General. Under the provisions of the Architect of the Capitol Human Resources Act, any employee of the Architect of the Capitol who wishes to pursue a claim of discrimination or retaliation before the Board must first file an internal complaint with the Architect of the Capitol and exhaust the procedures for resolving such complaints. The procedures for filing such complaints are at present set forth in the Equal Employment Opportunity Procedures Manual issued by the Architect of the Capitol. The internal procedures for resolving complaints of discrimination or retaliation will be considered exhausted when either of the following occurs:

(1) The employee receives a final decision by the Architect of the Capitol on his or her complaint of discrimination or retaliation; or
